A PRIVATE SCHOOL in the country — Miss Dewey wishes to receive a few pupils into her Family School, simated in Sheffield, (Mass.) in the valley of the Housetonic, Sheffield is a pleasant vallage, distant only an easy day's journey from New-York, by Bridgeport and the Housetonic erew came here in the vessel and were permitted to go on shore.

We learn that the Captain has employed Mr. Roselius on behalf of the owners of the brig. Her cargo is principally lineus and worth $50,000. The vessel is but five years old, and good for her class, but not a particularly last sailer. The exptain maintains that he never had any intention of running the blockade, but that after he had been warned off and proceeded on his way to Havana, he found it necessary to put back for water, and determined to ask permission to enter for that purpose of the commander of the squadron, when he was boarded and made a prize of.

We had the pleasure of conversing last evening with Lieut Berryman, whose coolness, courage and energy in the affair of the loss of the Truxton have also a fear of the loss of the Truxton have also and the stair of the loss of the truxton ha
